PRESS

The band brings exiting and rich compositions to the stage that draw their inspiration from many different corners, styles, cultures and grooves. Julia is a very versatile and creative pianist and composer which shows in her latest Trio CD „Good News“. During the last years she has been working with excellent artists form the Jazz Scene , with musicians from Brazil, West Africa, Syria, Argentina, from the Balkans, among others. All these influences appear in her music in a very organic, emotionally touching and beautiful way. The trio, together with Stefan Pista Bartus and Andjelko Stupar, both among the top Jazz players in Europe, has developed it´s own sound and muscial language, full of energy, color, harmonic richness, and natural interaction. To watch and listen to them is a totally enjoyable and unique experience for every kind of audience worldwide. „Pianist Julia Siedl is one of the most exiting discoveries of the Austrian Jazzszene“

PRESS QUOTES

(Rondomagazin, Germany)

"...a true discovery in the confusing world of piano trios... a charming and sparkling pleasure ... Julia Siedl masters the entire tradition of modern jazz piano..."

(die Presse Schaufenster, Austria)

"... On Good News, she shows how profound, witty and egalitarian a jazz trio can sound. With feminine elegance, she combines the sensible with the sensual..."

(MICA, Austria)

"One thing can be said after hearing" Good News ": Julia Siedl finally gives the proof that she is among the most interesting and best protagonists of the white and black keys in Austria. She immerses herself with an open, undogmatic and refreshingly playful nature into the language of jazz translating it into an enthralling musical form that really shows the high art of modern jazz."

(VOR Magazin, Austria)

"...impressively crafted and artistically exhilarating..."

"Julia's compositions are powerful, emotional, deep and beautiful...the band creates a unique, surprising and totally satisfying listening experience."
